SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10. 1737.

Nº 690.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

ACCORDING to Letters from Petersburg of the 16th of last Month, O. S. there was the 13th a triple Discharge of all the Artillery from the Fortresses for the taking of Karrafs-Bassar, and other Advantages gained by the Army under General Lascey in the Crim Tartary, where the Booty taken by the Russians is so considerable, that an Ox is sold there for a Ruble. The General tried several Times, in vain, to bring the Turks and Tartars to a Battle, who as often as the Russians appeared, retired to the Mountains and other inaccessible Places. Some Prisoners reported, indeed, that the Kan of the Tartars, whose Army consisted of above 70,000 Men, and had been reinforced by 20,000 Turks, all Select Men, often express'd his Desire to come to an Engagement with the Muscovites; but the Turkish Bashaw always oppos'd it, by telling him, that the Loss of a Battle would infallibly be attended with the Loss of all the Crim Tartary. The General Lascey finding it impracticable to pursue them in the Mountains, where three Men can scarce march abreast, repaid the Sea to the Main Land. They had received Advice at Petersburg, that the Grand Vizier was deposed and banished to Negropont; that his Kia Aga and Kislar Aga, were strangled, and that the Seraskier Abdulla-Basha who commands at Bender, is made Grand Vizier in his room, who is of the Kiuperli Family, and they say an able and very enterprising Man.

They have the same Advices at Vienna from the Frontiers, with this Difference only, that according to some Accounts, the Bashaw of Bosnia is the new Grand Vizier. But the News of Count Munich's Victory over the Turks at Bender, is not confirmed by the freshest Letters from Vienna, which are of the 24th ult. O. S. and say, that the Turks have thrown a Supply of 3000 Men into the Town of Widdin, for which the Garison made great Rejoicings; and 'twas believ'd by some, that because the Season is so far advanced, the Siege will be deferred.

Yesterday Se'night the Prince and Princess of Orange made their publick Entry at Breda with very great Splendor, and were received with a universal Joy. They were met out of the Town, and complimented in the Forenoon by the Burgomaster, two Deputies of the Magistrates, and the Greffier or Secretary, and after having dined in Publick, they made their Entry about 3 o'Clock in the Afternoon in the following Manner. 1. Several Grooms, with each a very fine Led Horse in his Hand, richly caparison'd. 2. All the Courtiers. 3. The Prince and Princess of Orange in a magnificent Coach drawn by 6 Horses, attended on each Side by the Horse Guards, and followed by four other Coaches and Six, in which sat the Princess's Ladies of Honour. Their Highnesses Pages and Domesticks were all clad in fine new Liveries, and were received by a Discharge of the Cannon from Ramparts, the Sound of Kettle Drums and Trumpets, and the Peals of all the Bells in the City. The Burghers, in their best Attire, were drawn up under Arms in a double Line, from the Gate through which their Highnesses enter'd to the Castle. The Troops in Garison there, were also drawn up in Order of Battle near the said Gate, in the great Marker-place, in the Square before the Castle, and in the Court Yard. Their Highnesses pass'd under four Triumphal Arches of the Composite and Tuscan Orders, and adorn'd with Emblems and Devices alluding to their Highnesses Virtues. When they arriv'd at the Castle, they were complimented by the Magistrates, by the Clergy in a Body, and by the chief Inhabitants of the City. His Highness distributed Gold Medals to the Magistrates, and caus'd others of Silver to be scatter'd among the Populace. At Night all the Houses were illuminated, and a fine Fire-work was play'd off in the Square before the Castle. The Prince did the Magistrates the Honour to partake of a Feast they had prepar'd at the Town-House, where two Fountains of Wine were let run for the Populace, which were adorn'd with Verdure, Orange Trees and Green Boughs.

The Letters from Petersburg say, the Court receiv'd an Express on the 14th ult. O. S. from Count Munich, but no Account is made publick of his March, and 'twas the Opinion of some People, that he was not yet very far from the River Bog, because the Tartars had destroy'd all the Forage on the other Side of Oczakow, towards the Neister.

They write from Nimirow, That the News of the Grand Vizier's being depos'd is there look'd upon as certain, with this Addition, That the new Grand Vizier has join'd the Turkish Army between the Niefter and Bender. The Plenipotentiaries have sent several Couriers from Nimirow to know the Truth of the Report, that Count Munich had given the Turks a decisive Blow near Bender; and in the mean Time the Conferences are at a Stand.

SCOTLAND.

To the King's most Excellent MAJESTY,

The humble Address of the Commission of the late General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, met and convened by Appointment of the said Assembly this 10th Day of August, 1737.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most Faithful and most Loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders now assembled in a Quarterly Meeting of the Commission of the late National Assembly of the Church of Scotland, humbly beg Leave to take this Occasion of offering to your Majesty our most sincere and unanimous Congratulations on the joyful Event of the Birth of a Princess, the first born Child of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales.

As the Church of Scotland has never failed even in the most difficult and dangerous Occasions, to give convincing Proofs of her Loyalty to your Majesty, and of her steady Attachment to the Protestant Succession in your August House: And as it is a Part of our daily Prayers to Almighty God, That your Majesty may be long preserved for a Blessing to your People; and that your Majesty's Royal Offspring may, to the End of Time, possess the Throne of these Realms, it cannot but fill our Hearts with Joy and Thankfulness, when we see our Wishes and Prayers, and those of all your good Subjects so far accomplished, as gives us the Prospect of the further Increase of your Royal Family, and the Continuance of the Protestant Succession therein.

We the Ministers and Elders of this Church have taken many Occasions to express our Loyalty and Affection for your Majesty and your Royal Family; and we beg Leave at this Time to assure your Majesty, that we are thoroughly persuaded, it is both our Duty and Interest, to stand so affected, and to demean ourselves accordingly, as the Settlement of the Crown of these Realms upon your Majesty and Royal Family, is the greatest Security, under God, of our own national Establishment of Religion and Liberty in all your Kingdoms, and the Protestant Interest in general; and it is and shall be our Care to cultivate and promote the like affectionate and dutiful Dispositions and Conduct in all the People under our Charge, and to guard them against every Thing may have the least Tendency to beget Disaffection to your Majesty's Person and Government, or disturb the Peace of our Country, and your Majesty's just Administration therein.

We conclude with our hearty Payers to Almighty God, that he may bestow and continue his best Blessings upon your Majesty, your Royal Consort the Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Royal Infant, and all the rest of your august and illustrious Family, and that their Royal Highnesses may be preserved, and their Marriage blest with a further Increase of your Royal Offspring, the better to secure and perpetuate the Blessings of your Majesty's Regn to latest Posterity: These are the sincere and fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

*Your Majesty's most faithful, most dutiful, and most obedient Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders Commissioners of the late General Assembly of the Church of Scotland,
Sign'd in our Presence, in our Name,
and at our Appointment, by LAUCHLAN MACINTOSH, Moderator.*
